

Unity

Summer 2005 • Volume 17, Number 2

Publication of SEIU United Healthcare Workers–West respiratory care practitioners • admitting clerks • estheticians radiologic technologists • sonographers • anesthesia techs nutritional assistants • licensed vocational nurses MRI technologists • monitor techs • sonographers linen room workers • IHSS providers • logistics techs patient registrars • pharmacy techs • shuttle drivers sports medicine coordinators • pbx operators • lab techs transcribers • ward clerks • vascular techs • cashiers certified nurse assistants • coding techs • CS coordinators cytology techs • data entry clerks • dental assistants • dieticians dishwashers • dispatchers

How Arnold's special election is a THREAT to YOU histologic techs • mail clerks surgical services aides maintenance engineers • x-ray clerks • patient care associates perinatal techs • file clerks food service workers medical records clerks finance counselors gardeners • mammography techs medical lab assistants mental health specialists molecular technologists registered nurses • phlebotomists pharmacy biller associates • plant operators respiratory care practitioners • processing aides pre-admission coordinators • psychiatric attendants QA analysts • pulmonary function technologists radiation therapists • purchasing assistants

Big business and Gov. Schwarzenegger are misusing an $80 million taxpayer-funded special election to take revenge on working families who have fought to protect healthcare, education and secure pensions. They plan to silence our voices, weaken our contracts and centralize power in the governor's hands. Inside: We're fighting back.